SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

After a beer run went bad, three suspects were arrested for robbery. The store clerks tried to stop them and a fight ensued. The suspects fled the scene and were arrested in Truckee.

A vehicle with five occupants drove into the Valero Gas Station in Emigrant Gap. Three of the occupants entered the store and tried to steal some beer. The suspects were confronted by the clerks who tried to detain them. The suspects started fighting with the clerks and eventually fled the store with one twelve pack of beer and drove off, eastbound on I-80. Placer County Dispatchers notified Truckee P.D. and CHP of the vehicle description and direction of travel. The vehicle was stopped on I-80 at Prosser Village Road in Truckee by CHP, Truckee P.D. and Placer County Sheriff's deputies from the Tahoe City substation. The victims were driven to the scene of the stop and positively identified the three suspects.
